If you have more than one story idea, fill out separate story proposal sheets. Please rank them in order of preference by writing #1, #2, etc. on the top of the sheet.

Give a description of the story you want to write:

What angle would you like to take?

Explain in one sentence what your story will say:

Why should you be the one to write the story? (Are you especially interested in the topic? Do you have a better understanding of the topic than others? Do you know someone who is affected by the topic of your story? Are you motivated to do a thorough job?)

What former journalism experience do you have? Include classes, work and internships.

What sources do you plan to pursue (people, organizations or other resources)?

What are your ideas for possible sidebars, photos or other graphics?

If you've never written for expo before, please attach two samples of your writing (from either work or class) to this sheet.
