

JOU 280: Introduction to Magazine Writing

Assignment: Final Packets

Point Total: 200

Overview: Students will turn in a completed magazine assignment with all materials in properly annotated and in the proper order.

Components: Your final story packet should be complete, professional and organized. This final packet will include (and in this order):

1. Story Idea: This top one-page will be a grammatically correct version of your idea with all materials updated (research, annotation, source list)
2. Final Story: The final version of the magazine piece which will be graded
3. Research: Students will have a copy of all their materials, annotated order, with research list on the front (same as the story idea).
4. Drafts: All drafts, in reverse order starting with the most recent.
5. Critiques: All critiques arranged in this order (my edits first, small group edits second, your notes last)

Grading: Students who complete the minimum requirements for the paper will receive a "C", which is average work. To receive higher marks:

- A completed assignment
- Strong voice, writing and use of concepts in class
- All materials gathered and sorted in a professional manner
