

ICOMM 375: Digital Storytelling

Project: Small Group Formal Presentations

Points: 50

Overview: Student groups will deliver final, formal presentations at the end of the pre- and production cycles

Components: This assignment will have two components: a formal presentation and an executive summary paper. Any presentation materials should be included with the summary.

- The presentation should be clear, concise and 8-10 minutes that details finished products and tweaks that will come in post-production.
- The executive summary (and related presentation materials) will provide a professional overview of the project. This should be tied directly to the pre-report.

Grading: Student groups that complete the minimum requirements for the paper will receive a "C", which is average work. To receive higher marks:

- Student groups should deliver the information in a professional and clear manner.
- Students can use outside readings, discussions or other materials to enhance their projects
